Our City Comment & discussion by THOMAS D. WATSON

The Community Chest Organization Should Begin Now

IN our editorial of July 10 we enumerated a number of community movements which had been mentioned, but had not gained any headway to speak of.

One of the most important of these was the idea of having a community chest for Glendale.

The time is drawing near for the different organizations to start drives for the purpose of collecting funds for their support.

Before these drives commence, the community chest plan should be studied out and the organization work well under way.

We realize that a good many people are away during July and August, which would make it necessary to delay the actual solicitation work. To make a success of the community chest the drive must be highly organized and to organize properly it cannot be done hurriedly; it is better to go slow and be safe than to hurry the matter and make a failure of it.

FIRST will come the decision as to whether the Glendale citizens are in favor of it. This will mean a campaign of publicity. The materials for educating the people of its merits are at hand, as a great many cities have inaugurated the community chest and have made a huge success of it.

After it is decided that the people would support the chest the work of forming the organization can be launched.

We understand that the Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee on this movement. This is a start. The next step will be action on the part of this committee.

AFTER studying over the plan of organization as used elsewhere we are convinced of the size of the task and realize that of necessity it will take considerable time to put over. This is our reason for counseling early action

The community chest idea is not an altogether new one. The first chest was started in 1914 as an experiment. The trial must have proved satisfactory, for it has shown a steady increase. The war undoubtedly gave the movement considerable impetus, for during that time 400 war chests were established along the same line. The success of these war chests proved the merits of the plan.

* * *

THERE are a great many organizations which are worthy of community support. The citizens of Glendale are as generous as may be found anywhere. They have never failed to take care of all demands made on them, but the last two or three drives have convinced most business men that a great deal of time could be saved as well as more funds raised if an every-citizen canvass was made once a year instead of a succession of individual drives.

The community chest has proven successful elsewhere and there is no reason to doubt its success here.

* * *

IT is not likely that Glendale will ever again have opportunity to receive such a galaxy of official stars, national and Californian, as will be included in the party of forty notables who will attend President Harding during his passage through this city on August 3. It will include Governor Friend Richardson, who is loved by many of his constituents because of the enemies he has made, and who is a big man exercising great powers in a big state. It will be interesting to see him in company with a past governor, Senator Hiram Johnson, who has on more than one occasion polled the biggest vote California has ever given any candidate and who also has enemies as well as staunch friends. Another Californian who always attracts attention is Senator Shortridge, and Congressman Lineberger will of course be present. Dividing honors with the president will be the members of his cabinet, Secretary of Commerce Hoover, whom California claims as an adopted son; Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture, representing the great middle western state of Iowa; Secretary Weeks of the Interior Department. They are all great figures in the world's leading nation, and the rank and file of voters never lose their curiosity if not their admiration concerning men who have been honored with such offices.

August 3 will be a red letter day in the history of Glendale and every child in the city should have opportunity to see the president and the heads of departments accompanying him who are doing so much to sustain and make a success of his administration. The presence of any one of them would be an event.

SYCAMORE FOLKS WANT MORE ACTION

P. S. McNutt Complains to the City Council on Conditions

NO CITY WATER YET

Bridge Removed Has Not Been Replaced by Better One

That the Sycamore canyon and Sierra avenue districts, lying on the east side of Glendale, are being neglected by the Glendale city council was the charges made by P. S. McNutt, a resident of the Sierra avenue section in a communication to that body, Thursday night. He enumerated a number of things that had, and had not been done, which are a detriment to those properties.

Mr. McNutt's communication was as follows:

"Sierra avenue entire, and most of Sycamore canyon road, are within Glendale, and have been for two years. No attention has been given the needs of the people of those sections during all of that time. We have no water and no roads fit to travel.

"The bridge on Sierra avenue needed some repairs. It was not repaired. We are now in the midst of fruit hauling. Instead of repairing it you have taken it out. We have no way to haul fruit out. You should have improved it until after fruit season, but 'no travel' notices have been posted for a week. People are stalled in autos all over the canyon.

"It is an unjust matter. Can't competent direction and work be given there immediately? Sycamore canyon road has been scarcely fit to travel for nearly a year. Did you not know that?

"Two years ago you signed a written agreement to furnish us with water under certain specified conditions. We have performed fully and promptly all the conditions on our part of the agreement, but you have not performed yours and we have not had any water. By reason of this our people have lost their fruit crop to the extent of $25,000 to $50,000 with many other losses.

"Sycamore Canyon road from Sinclair to the Broadway school has never been put in as was promised, or at all. Why is it not done?

"Please give these matters your immediate attention. We have no water for domestic use most of the time."

In connection with the tearing out of the bridge, City Engineer Dupuy stated that the structure was unsafe and that where the bridge has been taken out the wash has been filled in to the level of the roadway. He said it is the intention of the city to fill in that wash north of the bridge and run the water down Sycamore Canyon road just as soon as it is completed.

Mayor Robinson stated that although it does seem a long time since that section came into Glendale and while no great amount of improvements have been made there, the city is doing everything it possibly can to hurry the promised features for that locality. The city clerk was instructed to write Mr. McNutt, thanking him for his communication and state that the city is doing everything it can for that territory.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO CANCEL TAXES ON FIRE HYDRANTS

A request of the Glendale city schools that the charge of $1 per month per school for a fire hydrant, one of which is located at each school of the city, amounting to $144 per year, be removed from the school board, was denied by the Glendale city council Thursday night.

The communication from the board stated that as the water in these lines is never used, except in emergency, it was not right for the city to collect monthly for it.

It was pointed out by Councilman Davis that this change was made under city ordinance, whereupon the vote was taken and was unanimous in favor of denying the protest.

DOG QUESTION TO BE UP TUESDAY

The hearing on the dog question, which was to have been held in the Glendale city council last Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, will be held at 7 o'clock next Tuesday evening, according to an agreement reached Thursday night between the members of the city council and Edwin E. Kulp, representative of the Dog Protective association of this city.

Good Old Bill Howe Is Host to Press Employes At Robin Hood

Bill Howe, of the Glendale Theater, is a good scout. Everybody ought to know that but then some have not met Bill.

When he brought Robin Hood to Glendale he did it as he does things sometimes, to gratify his ambition to get the best for Glendale and the Glendale Theater deleting the word "profit" for the time being.

Naturally, knowing Bill Howe, the Glendale Daily Press expanded itself in describing the great show. It closes tonight by the way. It did this because it could not stand to see Bill pocket a deficit—if you can pocket a deficit—when he was doing an altruistic service to home folks. It did not consider that Bill owed the Glendale Daily Press anything for its interest in his efforts. But Bill Howe thought otherwise for yesterday he sent word to the Glendale Daily Press that if there were any employees there that had not seen the show he wanted them to see it before it left his theater.

Therefore, the Glendale Daily Press was there last night in the shape of many employees. They were all talking about the big treat this morning.

Kind of hard to get ahead Bill Howe in the practice of reciprocity. But see the show tonight. It is wonderful. So say we all!

ELKS' BAND TO BEGIN CONCERTS ON HIGH STEPS

Glendale Elks' band will begin its second season of weekly band concerts tonight at 7:30 o'clock when a program will be given in front of the high school. Manager C. M. Burke states that the band is planning concerts for each Friday night. R. E. Kenney is director of this musical organization which has been active in the musical affairs of the city.

The band members will attend the state Elks' convention at Eureka the week of September 16. It was for the benefit of the band that the athletic program was given at the local clubhouse Thursday night. This was attended by about 700 members from Glendale and the valley, as well as a large number from lodges of nearby cities and was a big success financially. Ray Galvin and Harry McCartney were in charge of arrangements.

HIGH TRUSTEES ELECT TEACHERS FOR NEXT YEAR

Again Turn Down Paving Project on Frontage and Alley

At the meeting of high school trustees held Thursday evening with all members present except Trustee Pearce, the matter of the paving of Colorado along the frontage of the present high school plant and also the new plant at Verdugo road was discussed at some length and the board agreed to be responsible for its share of the cost of paving the portion abutting on the new campus but not the other which it is practically abandoning. The portion to be paved at Verdugo road will cost about $2000, the cost of the other being in the neighborhood of $6000.

Teachers were elected as follows, all of the applicants having been interviewed by Principal Moyse at the N. E. A. convention and their appointment having been recommended by him:

Katherine Lewis, who taught last year in Tucson high, for general science.

Miss Frances Ahl of Berkeley, for history.

Miss Merle McGratj of Berkeley, for mathematics.

Ruford Watt Blair, a graduate of Colorado College, and residing in Berkeley, as teacher of English.

Miss Jeannette Kussart, as teacher of Spanish.

A letter from Superintendent White of the city school system, was read in which he inquired on what terms the high school trustees would dispose of three of their bungalow class rooms. The board was favorably disposed toward the proposition and authorized Business Manager Irving Oliver to take the necessary procedure looking to the disposition of the bungalows by securing an appraisement, etc.

In the prospective absence of President Yarick for thirty days Trustee Watson was appointed president pro tem.

SPANISH WAR VETS IN JAP EXCLUSION

SEWER PIPES SOUGHT FOR HILLSIDES

C. M. Cordary Brings Need to Attention of the Council

FOR USE IN FUTURE

Declares City Should Prepare for Rights of Way in Advance

As a result of a communication from C. M. Cordary, 404 Milford, owner of property in Glendale Crest, the Glendale city council Thursday night took under consideration the matter of providing sewer pipe outlets for the residents of that and other hillside tracts.

Part of Mr. Cordary's communication read as follows:

"I believe it would be well for the protection and safe-guarding of those owning property on such hillsides that proper space be held open as public right-of-way, so that each property owner can have a right-of-way down the hillside to lay sewer tiling to connection with the city sewer when it is put in."

To carry out this plan, it was explained to the council by the city engineer, a right-of-way for sewer purposes would have to be secured from the property located on the street at the higher level across the lot immediately adjoining the rear of that homesite to the next lower street.

Whether or not this should be done and whether or not the council has a legal right to take a step of this kind are questions the council decided to determine before taking action.

A number of surprise features are also planned.

CITY EMPLOYES DEFEAT CHRISTIAN CHURCH TEAM

City of Glendale employes defeated the Christian church baseball team by a score of 19 to 6 in a game played Thursday night at the high school grounds. There will be no game tonight under the Community Service schedule. The next game will be Monday night when the Night School will play the Standard Oil team.

GLENDALE AND CENTRAL AVE. ASK LIGHTS

Owners Petition the City Council for Ornate Lights

Petitions for ornamental street lights on Glendale avenue, from San Fernando road to Verdugo road; East Broadway from Everett street to the easterly city limits; and on Central avenue, from San Fernando road to Mountain street, were presented to the Glendale city council Thursday night, and in each instance the city engineer was instructed to institute proceedings for the work.

One type of standard was specified by the property owners for each of these stretches of ornamental light, this being a two-light G. E. form 21, Novalux unit of the lantern type with light alabaster rippled glass panels. The standard is of cast iron and steel, with steel and copper shaft reinforced with steel rods as manufactured by the Union Metal Manufacturing company. The lights are to be 125 feet apart, and the cost of the installation is to be borne by the abutting property owners.

The petition for the Glendale avenue lights carried about 60% of the property owners, with many of the owners having not been seen. This was presented by C. W. Ingledue and Herman Nelson, as representatives of the Glendale Advancement association.

The East Broadway petition, although many of the property owners have not been seen, carried 52% of the frontage effected. Everything between Everett and Adams street is solid for this improvement, while many of those beyond Adams signed the petition. This petition was presented by S. C. Kinch, acting chairman of the lighting committee of the Glendale Advancement association.

The Central avenue light petition was presented by Charles B. Guthrie, president of the Central Avenue Improvement association, who stated that although this is the infant improvement organization of the city it was up and doing things.

There was doubt in the minds of the members of the council whether or not the standard as asked for by the petitioners should be erected. The members agreed that the lighting standards of the city should be standardized—one light for the residential sections and two-light for the business districts.

The petitions from the different districts specifically stated that the steel standard, as shown in accompanying photograph, should be used. However, the council deferred action as to which type of standard it would select.

KIWANIS CLUB MEETING SET FOR BEACH

Suggested Be Held on a Boat in the Ocean

The Kiwanis club directors had an interesting and important meeting yesterday noon at the Glen Inn, which was attended by a full membership. One of the most important pieces of business transacted was the decision reached by the directors to hold the next directors' meeting next Wednesday at some point off the coast at Santa Monica, and that, too, it was suggested that the meeting be held beyond the 3-mile limit.

L. A. COUNCIL GRANTS FRANCHISE FOR THE GLENDALE-MONTROSE

Way Is Clear to Electrification of Glendale Avenue Through to the Canyon Towns, by the First of January

At the hearing before the Los Angeles city council this morning, the franchise for the line which the Union Pacific acquired from the Salt Lake railroad and which is to be operated electrically by the Glendale-Montrose railroad, was granted. It was merely a technical matter as the line will connect with the Yellow car line, but disheartening delays have been experienced in getting it because of the red tape of sending it through the various boards of the city administration for O. K., before the council would act.

This removes the last hindrance to the construction of the line which P. L. Hatch, the superintendent, says will be pushed with all speed and which he hopes will be in operation before the first of January, even though the power station may not be completed by then.

It is a transportation development to which all Glendale has looked forward, especially residents of the east side, and will add much to the material prosperity of the city.

JOINT LEGION MEETING SET FOR TONIGHT

Auxiliary and Soldiers to Have Good Musical Program

Tonight is the night for the comrades, wives, sisters and other feminine affiliates of the Legionnaires of Post No. 127, to attend a joint meeting. Ladies of the auxiliary and the members of Tujunga Post will be the guests of the evening. There will be an entertainment and eats.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Morris of the Pasadena Legion post two special numbers on the program of entertainment have been secured. Little Miss Virginia Moore, six-year-old premier dancer of the Amesbury studio of Pasadena, will give several dance numbers. This little dancer, who has been studying only a short time, has become a great favorite with the clubs and social organizations in and around Pasadena. COUNCIL STARTS COLORADO STREET PROCEEDINGS

Plats and Plans for Improvement Are Adopted by Resolution

New proceedings for the improvement of Colorado street from Glendale avenue to the eastern city limits of Glendale, were started by the Glendale city council Thursday night. A resolution adopting certain plans and plats for the improvement of this street, and another declaring the intention of the council to improve that thoroughfare were adopted. This action followed the adoption of a resolution abandoning the former proceedings for the work on this thoroughfare.

The new resolution of intention calls for the improvement of all of Colorado with the exception of that part of the roadway facing on the two high school sites.

The old proceedings called for the improvement of the entire street, but as the high school board stated it has no funds to pay for the improvement work in front of its property, and as the city, according to the council, has no money to pay for the work, it was necessary to abandon the former operations.

Later the high school board stated it is ready to pave the street in front of the new high school site, but that, as the old high school site may be purchased by the city for civic center purposes or by the city grammar school board, it does not feel that it should pay for the roadway in front of that property.

If the present proceedings are carried through all of Colorado between the points stated, will be improved with the exception of one half of the street facing on the two high school sites.

EAST PARK AVE. WIDENING PLAN

Proceedings for the opening of Park avenue from Glendale avenue to the Sycamore Canyon road were decided on by the Glendale council Thursday night. City Engineer Dupuy was instructed to bring in the desired proceedings for action at the meeting of the council next Thursday night.

In response to an interested property owner, Councilman Davis stated that the proceedings will call for the street being run as straight as it is practical to run it and that the work will be done as soon as possible.

TROUBLE SHIES OFF OF POLICE FORCE

Unless something exciting happens pretty soon, members of the police force of the city, under Col. Fraser, will be singing "Robin Adair" and coming in strong on "What's this dull town to me."

Not much was recorded yesterday afternoon or this morning.

Mary Bear of 714 South Central avenue reported that her bicycle, a pretty green wheel, trimmed with black, had again been stolen.

A brown handbag, containing wearing apparel, had been picked up on West Park avenue by a driver of one of the public service department trucks and turned over to the police department.

Arrangements had been made to return to Norwalk, Frank Devichio, who had gotten away from that institution and sought shelter with V. Collino of 1245 South San Fernando. He has been in the custody of the police department for several days. His chief delusion is that he is Caruso.

A little 7-year-old girl, daughter of Mrs. Heffrick of 575 East Lexington, reported missing by her mother, was found safe and sound on Riverdale drive. She had run away in search of adventures.

H. A. HALL HEADS ODD FELLOWS

An impressive and very pleasant social function was the installation of officers of the local Odd Fellows' lodge which took place Thursday night and which was followed by a fulifledged banquet served by members of the Carnation Rebekah lodge.

The installing team consisted of G. H. Fuller, district deputy grand master, assisted by Harry Jayne, district deputy grand marshal, and other members of the staff.

Officers installed were:

D. A. Hall, noble grand; H. T. Stevens, vice noble grand; A. J. Esterly, recording secretary; Frank Stanley, financial secretary; Chas. M. Pease, treasurer.

Appointed officers installed were M. E. Brown, right supporter of noble grand; Lee Murdock, left supporter of noble grand; Howard Stanley, warden; Charles Stanley, conductor; Ernest Rich, chaplain; Nels Johnson, inside guardian; George McBryde, outside guardian; J. W. Wolcott, right scene supporter; Mr. Ertles, left scene supporter; Clarence Mahaffy, right supporter of vice grand; W. W. Stone, left supporter of vice grand.

One of the events of the evening was the presentation by Carl Schwitters with a very nice speech, of a beautiful solid gold watch and chain to Dr. H. C. Smith, past district deputy president, who retired in May.

As stated, the ceremonies were followed by an elaborate banquet at which covers were laid for 90, the ladies having charge being Mrs. John Strother, district deputy president of Rebekahs, assisted by members of her staff.

Dancing followed the dinner and completed the pleasures of the evening.

Meetings of the advertising committee of the chamber of commerce have been held almost every day this week at the office of he chairman, W. L. Twining. At the session held yesterday, plans for the booklet were completed. This morning work was begun on full page advertisements which the committee plans to insert once a week in Los Angeles dailies. Present at the meeting this morning were City Manager Reeves, Lloyd Wilson, Mr. Case of the Walter Leimert company, P. J. Hayselden, and Chairman Twining.

S. P. STATION LOTS BOUGHT BY THE CITY

Council Buys the Cerritos Property for Its Location

$8500 IS INVOLVED

Action on the Affirmative Vote of Davis, Horn and Hall

The Glendale city council at its meeting Thursday night purchased the two lots at the foot of Cerritos avenue, which were necessary for the opening of that thoroughfare to the proposed site of the Southern Pacific depot, the cost to the city for this property being $8500, which will be paid out of the general fund of the city. The deeds for these lots were accepted and the demand for the payment of this money was approved.

This action was taken by the affirmative votes of Councilmen Davis, Horn and Hall. Mayor Robinson voted "no" on the proposition and Councilman Kimlin refused to vote, on account of his lack of information on the subject.

The following resolution with regard to the purchase of the property was adopted on motion of Councilman Horn and second of Councilman Davis:

"Whereas, a written offer has been made by George G. Stewart and Mary M. Stewart to the council of the city of Glendale to sell to the city of Glendale lots 14 and 15, block 5, tract No. 910 in the city of Glendale, county of Los Angeles, state of California, excepting all buildings, trees and shrubbery thereon, for the sum of $8500 cash. Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the council of the city of Glendale, that the purchase of said above described lots for the sum of $8500 is hereby declared to be necessary and advisable for the benefit of the city of Glendale and said offer is hereby accepted."

The adoption of this resolution was followed by the passage of a resolution accepting the deed to the lots.

The demand for the $8500 in payment for this property was then approved on motion of Councilman Horn and seconded by Councilman Davis.

CENTRAL AVENUE PAVING PETITION BEFORE COUNCIL

Association Asks Temporary Betterment at City's Expense

A petition for the paving of Central avenue from Broadway to San Fernando road was presented to the Glendale city council Thursday night by Charles B. Guthrie, president of the Central Avenue Improvement association, and another, asking that that thoroughfare be temporarily improved, the city to pay the costs, until the permanent pavement is installed, was offered.

The petition asking that the permanent pavement be laid was referred to the city engineer for checking and report.

In connection with the temporary improvement of this street Councilman Davis stated that the cost of repairing it so that all of it could be used for traffic would be so great that it would be prohibitive.

Mr. Guthrie stated that the Central avenue paving was installed by the county and has been of practically no expense to the city to date. As the residents of that avenue are heavy tax payers the city should, he said, be willing to do a little repair work on it.

"The condition of Central is a disgrace to the city and something should be done immediately," said Mr. Guthrie.

City Manager Reeves was instructed to secure an estimated cost of the temporary improvement of Central as desired and report at the council meeting next Thursday night.

The petition for the permanent improvement of this avenue reads as follows:

"The Central Avenue Improvement association, representing a large percentage of the property owners on Central avenue, hereby petition your honorably body to take immediate steps to improve that thoroughfare with 3½ inches of bitulithic concrete and 1½ inches of Warrenite, to change the grade of the street and to replace the sidewalks and curbs wherever necessary. We ask that water pipes and sewer mains be laid before said pavement is installed."

BIG FESTIVAL AT OAKLAND

OAKLAND, Calif., July 11 (United Press).—The greatest chorus of all solo singers ever gathered together on the bay is planned here during the last week in September when the great annual fall festival will be staged.

A concert by 1000 trained voices will be another feature of the wonderful musical program. Alameda and Berkeley are to have a share and aid in the undertaking.

COMPROMISE MADE ON DORAN ST. PROTEST

Glendale Dairy Company Proposes to Build Houses on Property

A tentative agreement whereby the north side of Doran street between Concord and State streets will be permitted to remain in the industrial district providing the owner of that stretch, W. P. MacMullin, president of the Glendale Dairy company, will erect residences on the Doran street frontage, was reached between the Glendale city council, several residents living in that district and Mrs. MacMullin, who appeared in place of her husband who was unable to be present.

In response to questions by residents of that section Mrs. MacMullin stated that the contract has been let for four dwellings to be erected on the Doran street frontage in question and that none of these homes will cost less than $5.000.

The members of the city council stated as their belief that if Mr. or Mrs. MacMullin stated these homes would be constructed at that point, that that is just the action that would be taken by the owners of the dairy property.

The difficulty arose out of the fact that about six months ago the five acres on which the Glendale Dairy is located and part of which faces on Doran street, was made industrial property. The residents across the street and adjacent to this property, fearing that industrial plants would be erected on the company's Doran street frontage, thereby ruining their holdings, asked that a strip of the property 150 feet deep on Doran be placed back into the residential district.

SALE OF SCHOOL PAVING BONDS IS CONSIDERED NOW

The matter of selling additional bonds of the $35,000 issue that was voted some time ago by Glendale voters for the improvement of property in front of the city schools was taken up Thursday night by the Glendale city council.

About $15,000 worth of these bonds have already been sold, and it was decided to sell just enough of them to pay for the street work that is being done at the present time and will be done in the very near future, so as to eliminate the payment of as much interest as possible.

MISS WILLIAMS WED TO FRED CHARLES WILSON

Popular Young People Are United at Home of Bride's Grandfather

Under an archway of greenery and flowers, from which was suspended a wedding bell, the marriage of Miss Evelyn Williams and Fred Charles Wilson, both popular members of the younger set, took place Wednesday night, July 11, 1923, at the home of the bride's grandfather, J. McClain, 1321 East Colorado street. Reverend Grisby Nelson Hobson of Merced officiated at the ceremony, which took place at 7:30 o'clock.

Preceding the wedding Jewell McLaughlin sang Cadman's "At Dawning." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. John Starr. Mrs. Alan McKenzie was the maid of honor. She was gowned in green taffeta and carried orchid sweet peas. Miss Jane Snyder was the bridesmaid and wore apricot taffeta. Her bouquet was also of orchid sweet peas.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, J. McClain. She wore white satin and lace, with wedding veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet. William Wilson acted as best man. The house was decorated throughout with palms, flowers and greenery.

A reception was held following the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson left on a two weeks' honeymoon trip to San Diego. They will make their home temporarily on their return at 1321 East Colorado street until their new home in North Glendale is completed.

BELLEVUE TRACT PUT OVER BY PRESS ADS

Hayward & McCartney, the well known real estate firm, is taking things a little easy and getting ready for fall business now that they have sold out their latest tract, "Beautiful Bellevue," in the northwest, near Brand's castle. Mr. McCartney expresses considerable pride in the fact that the $125,000 worth of property it represented was disposed of inside of thirty days and largely to local purchasers who could appreciate its value. Already about half a dozen houses have been started. Mr. McCartney also considers it significant that but $150 was expended to advertise the tract and the larger proportion of that appropriation with the Glendale Press. This fact has satisfied him with the pulling power of that paper and the kind of returns that can be depended upon when its columns are used to announce something really worth while.

BOYS' SHOP TO FORMALLY OPEN

"The Boys Shop" is the name of an exclusive boys' store which has been opened at 104 West Broadway by W. O. Richards, who has had a long and varied experience in this line. A little later Mr. Richards will have his formal opening, full details of which will appear later.

The store is now open for business and already has attracted considerable attention. Mr. Richards will carry the best lines and will give the boys up-to-date clothing and furnishings at the right price. The store is a model boys' store, and every effort will be made to meet the demands of the boys, said Mr. Richards. Something of especial interest to boys appears in the advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

Glendale residents, regardless of age, size or color, are to have the opportunity of satisfying their desire to prove their ability and adaptability to appear in motion pictures through arrangements which have been made by the Glendale Daily Press in connection with the Paramount Picture-Evening Express motion picture contest.

This contest is open to every man, woman and child and is supported by Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, Paramount Pictures and Artcraft Pictures. Film tests will be made under the personal supervision of such famous directors as Cecil De Mille, James Cruze, Jesse L. Lasky, Herbert Brennan and George Melford. Arrangements have been made whereby the test films of local contestants will be shown at the T. D. and L. theater.

The winners will be given definite contracts for a period of weeks for parts in Paramount pictures to be made at the Lasky studio under the guidance of that organization's staff of famous directors.

They will be photographed by some of the most famous cinema-photographers in the world.

The winners will be taught the intricate art of make-up by the most versatile of the Paramount dramatic artists.

Many of the Paramount stars and featured players will act as godfathers and godmothers to the contest winners and advise and assist them on their screen career.

Every person qualifying in the contest will be given a free screen test taken by experts and under the direction of authorities at the Paramount Picture Corporation's display at the American Historical Revue and Motion Picture Exposition which opens this evening at Exposition park.

Heretofore the majority of contestants for screen honors have been restricted to one particular class—generally a search for beautiful girls. Beauty no longer dominates the screen. As it takes all kinds of people to make a world, so does it take all kinds of people to make a motion picture. The versatile character actor, the dignified dowager or clever child is just as vital to the telling of a cinema tale as the beautiful heroine.

The Paramount Pictures-Glendale Press and Evening Express contest makes no restrictions as to contestants. The winner of the contest will receive the first prize irrespective of sex or age. There are a number of principal prizes ranging in amount of salary per week and the number of weeks work. The winner will naturally have the plum of these contracts which now bear Mr. Lasky's signature and await the filling in of the winning name on the dotted line before they become operative.

To secure the necessary credentials to enter the contest, see D. K. Mitchell, room 2, Glendale Daily Press, 224 South Brand boulevard, or the Contest Representative at the Paramount Pictures beautiful display at the American Historical Revue and Motion Picture Exposition at Exposition park.

The contest starts today and will end August 10.

In case of a tie equal prizes will be awarded the tying contestants.

VEDANTA CENTRE TO GREET ITS SWAMI

New Sect from Boston to Welcome Strangers on Sundays in Hills

After some months in the east, Swami Paramananda, founder and head of the Vedanta Centre of Boston, is returning to Ananda Ashrama, his newly required peace retreat in the foothills of La Crescenta. The Swami established his Boston work in 1908. Since then it has steadily grown until last year it had all but outgrown its Boston home. As a means for expansion, the Swami, this past spring, bought the lovely Fusenot ranch in the Sierra Madre mountains, at the north end of Pennsylvania avenue, La Crescenta. This is an extension of the Vedanta Centre of Boston and the Swami hopes that the rare climatic conditions in California will give to the workers opportunity for self-expression along all lines, practical and artistic with the spiritual ideal as a background. The Swami can only remain in the west for a few weeks as he has to divide his time between Boston and La Crescenta.

Every Sunday afternoon, beginning with July 15, he will conduct services at the Ashrama at 4 o'clock and on Thursday afternoon between 2:30 and 5:30 he will be at home to visitors at the Ashrama. Everyone is welcome and for the convenience of Pasadena friends, a motor will meet the Flintridge stage at Flintridge terminal on Sundays at 4 o'clock.

The dead and injured were negroes.

The men were 1400 feet below the surface of the earth when a coupling broke, according to reports received at the company's office here. Twelve cars were loosed and went hurtling unchecked for the remaining 800 feet.

BREAD TREE IS TO BE STUDIED

[By Associated Press]

HONOLULU, T. H., July 12.—A collection of breadfruit trees of the Pacific region may be established here for study, propagation and further dissemination, as the result of a suggestion from P. J. Webster, of the department of agriculture and natural resources of the bureau of agriculture of the Philippine Islands.

In a letter received by Governor Wallace R. Farrington and Dr. H. E. Gregory, director of the Bishop museum here, Webster requested their cooperation and asked whether it would be possible for the museum to furnish the land on which to plant the trees. Dr. Gregory expressed the opinion that the museum might be able to set aside a tract for the purpose. Governor Farrington has placed the matter in the hands of the chamber of commerce. The collection, it is said, would be the only one of its kind in the world and would include specimens of breadfruits of all the islands of the Pacific.

FRISCO GIRL CATCHES 14-POUND TROUT

CITY COUNCIL TAKES ACTION ON STREETS

Decides on Many Improvements in Various Parts of the City

The matter of granting to M. B. Towman of the Elks Club, the right to change the set-back line on a lot at the corner of Stocker and Viola streets, in order that he may construct nine homes on that piece of property, was referred to the building inspector by the Glendale council Thursday night. The regular set-back line in the city is 25 feet from the front property line. Mr. Towman asks that this be changed to eight feet on Viola and sixteen feet on Stocker.

Street Contractor W. J. Curren was granted an extension of 60 days in the improvement of Gilbert street.

A petition was received from W. B. Twining for the improvement of Hillside Drive with sidewalk, curbing and paved roadway, and the city attorney and city engineer were instructed to start proceedings for this work.

No action was taken on the request of the Haddock & Nibley company for a permit to lay a 6 foot sidewalk on its property on the west side of Glendale avenue. City Engineer Dupuy stated that all of the other property owners on the street are carrying the sidewalk back twelve feet and he thought the owners of Rossmoyne should be compelled to do likewise. It was decided to take the matter up with Haddock & Nibley to see what can be done before starting condemnation proceedings for the six feet in question.

A petition to improve Stanley avenue from the end of the present improved stretch to the Verdugo road was received and on motion of Councilman Kimlin the city attorney was instructed to start proceedings for this work.

The request of Elizabeth R. Manning for a permit to keep two children at 424 West Palmer avenue was denied on account of the location of the property.

A permit to care for children at 729 North Kenwood, asked by Eleanor B. Sheppard, was granted by the council.

Bids for the improvement of Cypress street and Magnolia avenue were opened and referred to the city engineer for checking and report.

Bids for the furnishing of a 400-horsepower synchronous motor for the city of Glendale were received and referred to the superintendent of plant and production.

The city clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the following articles: 1400 feet of cast iron pipe, a 250-horsepower automatic induction regulator and one gasoline or motor driven road roller.

Maps of Tracts Nos. 6670 and 5587 were adopted.

As there were no protests against the improvement of Windsor road and Garfield avenue the next step in this work was ordered taken.

A petition asking that Lots 1, 2, 3 and 4, Tract No. 4490, located on Carr Drive, in the eastern section of the city, be changed to a commercial district, was denied.

An ordinance establishing the grade on a portion of Raymond avenue was adopted.

The following ordinances were introduced:

An ordinance establishing the grade on a portion of Raleigh street.

An ordinance abandoning proceedings for the opening and widening of Park avenue.

The following resolutions were adopted:

A resolution ordering the vacating of a portion of Adams street.

A resolution ordering the improvement of Glenwood road.

A resolution adopting certain plans and plats for the improvement of business district alleys.

A resolution adopting certain maps and plats for the improvement of Sierra, Merrill and Hill streets.

A resolution of intention for the improvement of Sierra, Merrill and Hill streets.

A resolution of intention for the improvement of Sycamore Canon road.

A resolution of intention for the improvement of Park, Florence, Virginia and Acacia.

A resolution of intention for the vacating of a portion of Acacia avenue.

A resolution adopting a diagram for the improvement of Dixon and Lafayette streets.

A resolution adopting specifications for the furnishing of a gasoline roller.

A resolution adopting a diagram for the improvement of Doran street.

Glendale Avenue Pavement Ordered

The improvement work on Glendale avenue, from Forest avenue to Monterey road, was ordered in by the Glendale city council Thursday night, thus bringing nearer by another step the improvement of the only through north and south thoroughfare in Glendale.

The National type pavement has been selected for Glendale avenue and it is understood that the National company is now completing plans for the erection of a manufacturing plant in this city, from which point it will work this section.

REAL FURNITURE SALE SET FOR SATURDAY

New England Company to Offer Goods Near the Cost Price

Glendale is to have a real, honest to goodness marked down furniture sale which will begin Saturday morning. It is to be provided by the New England Furniture company of 231 South Brand, and the fact that they are overstocked is the reason why Glendale is having this opportunity. They have a beautiful stock, one of the finest ever offered in Glendale, and for that reason the chance to secure fine goods in furniture and floor coverings at prices which in some cases will closely approximate cost, is unusual and not likely to be repeated. The offering includes every line without reservation—bedroom suites, dining and living room furniture, rugs, linoleum, art chairs and tables, desks, lamp shades, etc. Visitors will be welcome, whether prospective buyers or not, and those who enjoy inspecting beautiful furnishings would do well to go early before the stock is materially reduced.

STREET CORNERS TO BE ROUNDED, COUNCIL ORDERS

Northeast Corner Glenwood and Grand View to Be Curved

In line with its policy to round as many corners in Glendale as is deemed necessary for public safety, the Glendale city council at its meeting Thursday night instructed City Engineer Dupuy to take immediate steps for the rounding of the northeast corner of Glenwood road and Grand View, the cost to be borne by the city. The engineer was also instructed to have a white line painted at his intersection and at the corner of Kenneth and Grand View for the purpose of making the corners as safe as possible.

Charles B. Guthrie on whose request this action was taken, commended the council for its action along this corner-cutting line.

K. OF P. CONFERS PAGE DEGREE ON TWO CANDIDATES

Plans of Knights and Sisters Are Discussed at Regular Meeting

Rank of page was conferred on a class of two candidates at the regular meeting of the Glendale lodge of Knights of Pythias, held Tuesday night at the K. of P. hall at South Brand boulevard and Park avenue. At the meeting next week a class of six will be put through the rank of esquire. On Sunday a group of friends, members of the K. of P., are planning an outing and basket picnic at Sunland. All Knights are invited.

The Pythian sisters are planning to give a dance the fourth Thursday in July and have invited the Knights to attend. There will be a large class put through the rank of Knight on the evening of July 24. This will be followed by a banquet. The Glendale lodge has invited Hollywood, Van Nuys, Pasadena and Alhambra to be present. Chancellor Commander Melzer was in charge of the business meeting last night.

SUPERVISOR OF FOREST THANKS BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scouts of Glendale have received a letter commendation from R. H. Charleton, forest supervisor of the Angeles forest for their efficient work in helping to put out a forest fire near their camp on June 26th. The fire started, in all probability from a lighted cigaret thrown carelessly from a passing automobile and it was no time until it was burning fiercely up the mountain slope. Luckily the Scouts discovered the fire soon after it started and for two hours they fought it side by side with the rangers. No one had any tools except the Scouts and their quick work saved a great area from being burned over. For two nights after the fire was under control, the Scouts patrolled the fire line, rendering every assistance. Following is the letter received by Scout Executive Harold Benner from Mr. Charleton:

Dear Mr. Benner:

Ranger Switzer has just advised me of the good work done by the Boy Scouts of the Verdugo Hills council at a recent fire in Hook creek, and I wish you would express to the boys our sincerest appreciation of their work. It was mighty good of them to pitch in and help us out.

Very truly yours,
R. H. CHARLETON,
Forest Supervisor.

COUNSELS OF PERFECTION

By H. ADDINGTON BRUCE
Author of "The Riddle of Personality," "Self-Development," Etc.
(Copyright, 1923, by The Associated Newspapers)

He had gone to the physician expecting to have some medicine prescribed for the fatigue, insomnia, restlessness and other nervous symptoms of which he had long been complaining. Instead the physician had told him that what he needed, and all that he needed, was to make certain changes in his ways of thinking and living.

With ill-concealed impatience he listened to the advice, frankly and emphatically given him. Finally he interrupted with:

"All you say is no doubt true enough. But what's the use of giving me counsels of perfection that I can't possibly live up to?"

"You can at least try to live up to them," was the quick retort. "And the trying will itself help to free you from your nervousness."

Then the physician went on:

"Don't imagine that I am expecting the impossible of you, or preaching to you. My counsels of perfection, as you call them, are merely common-sense aids to the regaining of the health and happiness you have lost.

"And you must make use of them to the best of your ability if you really want to be well again. The thing that counts, I would ask you to remember, is not the achieving of perfection, but the striving for perfection."

Too many people are like this nervous patient.

They are inclined to be cynical, perhaps even derisive, when they hear or read maxims bearing on the management of life. How easy it is, they reflect, to phrase ideals which, for all their wisdom and soundness, are beyond human realization.

These scoffers forget that the great purpose of ideals is to establish standards of value and to chart courses of action.

They forget that, without a cherishing of ideals, life, if only because it then is aimless, is certain to seem vain and empty, certain to become burdened with a long succession of sorrows and disappointments.

Lacking ideals, indeed, one is denied access to the great source of joy and power so vividly indicated in Richard Henry Stoddard's lines:

"We have two lives about us,
Two worlds in which we dwell,
Within us and without us,
Alternate Heaven and Hell—
Without, the sombre Real,
Within, the beautiful Ideal."

And it is the great merit of counsels of perfection that they fix more firmly in the mind, through bringing into bolder relief, essential features of the ideal. To be sure, though, they do this only for those who will take the trouble to look and listen.

Which is what the cynics and the scoffers, luckless folk, will not do. Hence it remains their miserable fate to stumble blindly through existence, perpetually sustaining injuries which acceptance of the guidance of counsels of perfection would have enabled them to escape.

MT. HOOD AS PICNIC GROUNDS

PORTLAND, Oregon, July 12 (United Press.—Trips to the beaches, motor trips up the famous Columbia river highway, and a climb to the top of Mt. Hood are among the choice week-end outings for the 2,000 delegates in attendance here at the convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs.

This is the first time since its foundation that the federation has held its annual gathering in the west, and the local committee has carried out an extensive program of entertainment.

Mrs. Lena Lake Forrest of Detroit, Mich., is the retiring national federation president. She outlined the work of the organization, as a feature of one of the programs.

FAIRBANKS IN FILM GRASPS POSSIBILITY

Star of Robin Hood Converted From Stage by Show

Douglas Fairbanks, creator of "Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood," a United Artists release, at the Glendale theatre, closing tonight, made his debut on the stage at the age of 17 years and the first thing he did was—Shakespeare, in support of that sterling exponent of the Bard of Avon, Frederick Warde, well known to all Glendale folks.

It is not easy to imagine the vigorous Douglas moving to the slow tempo of most Shakespearean plays, but he did it, and so well that it led to better things for him. The salary he received in those earliest days of his career, being very inconsiderable, was equally inconsequential. But, the weekly wage which followed as a consequence is very consequential—$10,000 a week consequential, forsooth. No other actor ever made such a pecuniary leap and no other actor ever emerged from the land of oblivion to win such an extensive and intensive fame as this great star can claim.

After he had reached the exalted position of one of the most popular stars of the speaking stage and had won fame as the hero of such memorable triumphs as "Hawthorne, U. S. A.," "He Comes Up Smiling," "The New Henrietta" and "The Show Shop," he made a very important discovery, namely: that there had come into existence another form of dramatic expression which afforded a wider latitude, a more unlimited scope for his talents—motion pictures. The realization of the possibilities of this new art came to him as a result of his witnessing an exhibition of "The Birth of a Nation," David Wark Griffith's unforgettable masterpiece of the screen.

1,000 FANS HEAR FIGHT REPORT HERE

Glendale Daily Press and Burbank Press Deliver the News

LARGE AUDIENCES

First A. P. Direct Wire From N. Y. Reaches Burbank

Nearly a thousand attended the big fight audience at the Glendale Daily Press yesterday evening. A smaller audience attended at the Burbank Press office.

For a hundred yards north and south of the Press building in Glendale and across the street, parked machines held fight fans and some their wives, while in front of the Press building were several hundred more waiting with breathless interest the delivery of the news, round by round with every blow counted.

It was a Willard crowd from the start. Every blow the big Kansan struck, was greeted with a cheer. When he crashed final defeat, a groan went up from the crowd. Then there was a wait while the bulletin telling how it happened was read.

Inside the Glendale Daily Press, the wire to the ringside came clear and sharp from the sender at the other end who saw the big contest for contender for the world's title passing before his own eyes.

The bulletins were taken from the Associated Press operator and while one was being transmitted to the second floor for reading by Bob Corrigan of the Glendale Daily Press, a second copy was forwarded by telephone to the Burbank Daily Press, also a member of the Associated Press, which was entitled to a report of the big fight. There, MacCoubrey read the report.

While the report was being read in Glendale, it was going to the fight fans of Burbank, both megaphones working simultaneously.

It was the first time an Associated Press, ringside wire report had ever been received in Burbank and the audience appreciated the extra effort and cost to bring it to that city.

The honor of covering the fight for Burbank was shared by a radio set across the street from the Burbank Daily Press which put on a program of music and entertainment, while it delivered the fight as it came relayed from Los Angeles.

The Burbank Press leased wire direct from New York, however, closed the fight four rounds ahead of the radio relay. That it did not do better was due to the fast relay the radio secured.

'FIGHTING BLOOD' AND 'SHOCK' AT T. D. & L.

It's the mental and physical fighting blood in each person that counts in the race for success. This was H. C. Witwer's thought when he conceived and wrote his series of "Fighting Blood" stories for Collier's Magazine, which have now been filmed. The first of the series, a two-reel feature, will be shown at the T. D. & L. theatre tonight and Saturday.

Although there is a smashing ring battle shown in each of these pictures, "Fighting Blood" is not a story of pugilism. The story is full of wholesome comedy and a pleasant love story. George O'Hara, playing the leading role, brings a distinct personality to the screen and is rapidly becoming one of the greatest favorites of motion picturedom. Clara Horton plays the role of Judy Wilcox. The pictures were all directed by Mal St. Clair.

What are the mysterious ingredients that go to make the great picture? This question is one that is often asked. The answer is hard to give, but a close study of successful pictures serves to show that first there must be a strong story; interesting in itself and replete with action; second, the principal players must look the part or be able to make up in such a manner that the audience feels they are looking at characters that are real; third, the direction must take care of all the little details that might serve to create a bad impression if they failed to be absolutely correct.

This combination of three fundamentals does not seem such an involved matter, but to those in the motion picture business they are mountains that must be scaled with each new production. The matter of casting is a serious one, especially where the part is one requiring unusual ability. An excellent example of successfully scaling the mountains is "The Shock," the Universal-Jewel production, which comes to the T. D. & L. theatre today for an engagement of two days.

OLD NEW YORK ART TREASURES TO BE AUCTIONED

The art treasure of the old Minturn family of New York are now on exhibition in Los Angeles and will be sold at auction, commencing Wednesday, July 18, at 1 p. m.

The Minturns were the real rich New York people in the early part of the 19th century, who owned the Clipper ships at a time when the American merchant marine was a its best.

This collection of art treasures has been in storage in New York City, uninterrupted, for forty-three years and contains paintings by Reynolds, Sir Peter Lily, Paul Herve. A portarit of Helen Minturn Post by Rembrandt Peal, many old French and Italian masters and old paints.

The furniture includes many pieces of 17th and 18th century Spanish, Italian, French and Colonial furniture. Of note is a console table and a pair of vases that were acquired by Captain Minturn at the Napoleon sale in Paris, in 1843. There are old carvings, velvets, rare china, including a genuine imperial sevres vase in rose du Barry, dated 1787. A late 18th century enamel, diamond and pearl necklace. Old Tuscan and Spanish wrought iron window grills and candle stands. Chairs covered in genuine Aubusson tapestry. Old bronzes, tables and credenzas, and a statuette of St. Anthony by Della Robia.

In fact, the H. Taylor Curtis company salesroom is a veritable museum and those interested in seeing a wonderful collection of European art should visit the exhibition, as there are pieces in this collection only to be found in the greater museums.

An applicant for a part once asked the late Sir Beerbohm Tree to engage him solely on a newspaper report. "I enclose you a newspaper cutting about myself," he wrote, 'to show that I have aptitude for the stage." The cutting ran as follows: "The prisoner, who denied the assault, conducted his own case, and defended himself in a somewhat dramatic manner."
